

FLP Placement for a Diesel Fuel System

BI-TORQ Valve Automation's thermal shut-off valves (FLP series) are designed to provide critical shutdown protection on flammable liquids in a piping system. Ideal placement is on the outlets of flammable storage tanks or at critical point in a where flow needs to be shutdown. For full system protection, a variety of valves sizes will be used utilizing our LT, MT, HT and BT series thermal shut-off valves.